

Scholarships Available

The Bridging the Divide Summit is an event focused on equity and equality in the Australian public education system.

We value diversity and want to ensure that the BTDS2024 is an inclusive event. To achieve this, we are offering a number of scholarships for people to attend to ensure the ticket cost isn't a barrier for people getting involved.

In-person

- ✓ Attendance in-person to the summit in Melbourne, Australia*
- ✓ Access to online sessions

Virtual

- ✓ Attendance online across both days of the summit

REPRESENTATION

We offer scholarships to people from communities that we believe need to be represented at BTDS2024 including:

- Young people aged 25 and under
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- People with disability
- People from a migrant/refugee background
- People who live in regional and rural areas
- Unwaged activists

Regardless of this list, we encourage everyone who would like a scholarship to apply. *Does not include any transportation or accommodation expenses.

CRITERIA

People with a demonstrated interest, experience, and/or expertise in the field of education, who would otherwise be unable to attend the summit without the assistance of a scholarship.
